10. Licensor may terminate this agreement, with cause, at any time by giving not less than seventy-two (72) hours notice of such termination of Licensee.

11. The days and the time thereof on which licensee may exercise the rights and privileges granted hereunder will be designated in writing within thirty (30) days after the execution of this agreement by the President or Director of the Park and Recreation Department or his designated representative. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed as prohibiting the granting of a permit by said President or Director to others to use said field at any time or times said field is not designated for use by the Licensee, and said Director may also permit the use of said field at any time designated for use by the Licensee, and said Director may also permit the use of said field at any time designated for use by the Licensee when he reasonably determines that it is not to be used by the Licensee at said time, or the joint use of the facility is deemed by Licensor to be feasible. Any designation made by the Director under the provisions of this paragraph 11 shall be null and void as to any days subsequent to the expiration of this agreement of its termination as provided by paragraph 10 hereof, whichever first occurs.

12. Licensees shall put into place reasonable procedures that subjects each adult working with minors within their organizational structure are subject to background checks.

13. Any notice herein provided for shall be conclusively presumed delivered to either party hereto upon such notice being deposited in the United States Mail, registered and return receipt